

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections.

Since the enactment of our Telephone Privacy Protection Law it has made our private time at home and dinner time more enjoyable with no interruptions due to unwanted solicitations via telephone.

Thank you for your consideration.

Rudy Decker